We've said wine is like music. There are many different genres and styles. And “best” is more a question of taste than absolutes. We craft authentic wines with real character that reward those with the patience to explore a wine and watch it develop and change as the evening unfolds.

Our 2007 Lia’s Vineyard “Jory Slope” Chardonnay is an alluring wine that is full-bodied yet sleek. The bright acidity is complemented by subtle minerality and a pleasant earthiness. Nose of star fruit and Asian spice. Tropical fruit on the palate accompanied by rich mouth feel. It is a pure expression of the 2007 vintage from our vineyard.

In this exceptional vintage, we dubbed the reserve-quality wine “Jory Slope” in recognition of the soil in which the own-rooted vines grow. This block has bright orange/red soil and is one of the steepest and highest in our vineyard.

The wine is a bit like a classic bossa nova: elegant and light on its feet, but with a spicy, earthy beat that makes us want to dance.
