

2011 Longplay Pinot Noir
Lia's Vineyard
Chehalem Mountains

90 points

Bright red. Aromas of red berries, spicecake and musky herbs, with a hint of smokiness emerging with air. Clean and nervy on the palate, offering tangy redcurrant and strawberry flavors that become sweeter with air. Racy, penetrating red fruit and spice qualities linger on the long, mouthwatering finish, which features a kick of bitter herbs. Grown-up in style, showing no easy sweetness but plenty of complexity. - Josh Reynolds
